
TEXWORLD F/W 13

JACOB JAVITS CONVENTION CENTER | JULY 24-26, 2012
ATTENDEES FROM AMERICA'S EASTERN SEABOARD FLOCKED TO TEXWORLD
USA: THE NEW YORK TRADE SHOW FOR GLOBAL TEXTILE SOURCING.

ABOUT THE SHOW

After its recent 13th edition, which was the largest to date, Texworld USA has become a key boutique event in North America for apparel fabric buyers and product development professionals sourcing affordable High Street textiles and trims. The new Turkey Pavilion highlighted twelve companies, however most suppliers are Asian, hailing from China, Taiwan and South Korea. The Lenzing Innovation Pavilion presented over 30 companies incorporating cellulose material developments.

Co-located alongside Home Textiles Sourcing Expo (interior fabrics and finished home products) and International Apparel Sourcing (private label manufacturing), Texworld USA offers a three-in-one experience that is gaining credibility each season.

SHOW FACTS:

- 328 exhibitors from 14 countries, mostly from Asia
- Venue: Javits Convention Center
- Next Show Date: January 14-16, 2013
